

Joel Libove

Steve Cohn is a uniquely qualified candidate for MOFD board, possessing a rare combination of financial acumen, expertise in fire prevention and evacuation strategy, and broad knowledge of local government operations. Steve's deep technical expertise in large-scale quantitative analysis, regional infrastructure and geography, complex computer modeling and fire safety, and his long-demonstrated ability to galvanize large segments of the local population and develop workable, economical, solutions, make him a truly superb choice for MOFD board.